Exploring the Bible Together!

A major week by week exploration of the books of the Bible Beginning Autumn 2011

St Paul's Church Dorking

Exploring the Bible Together!

Sunday evenings at 6.30p.m. we begin a major week by week exploration of the books of the Bible beginning on Sept 18th with Genesis.

Every Sunday evening at Bible Explorer
we will explore the question
'What does this book from the Bible mean for us today?

Exploring the Bible Together!

Your Part!

Firstly come each week!
Secondly, through a number of ways. . . teaching, worship, film, drama and other creative and interactive inputs (though not all in one week!), we will be exploring the big question
'What does this particular book of the Bible mean for us today?'
Beginning with the book of Judges on Nov 13th
we are looking for individuals, small groups, youth groups (any groups!) who would take a week and a book from the Bible and lead us in exploring!
Advice , help, resources. musicians and singers can be on hand to help!

Exploring the Bible Together!

So . . . this year, Numbers, Joshua, Judges, Ruth and Samuel are open to offers and in the New Year so to are the books of Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Job, Psalms, Proverbs,
Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs and Isaiah. . . which will take us up to Easter.

Do contact Paul
if you /your small group may be interested in finding out more about exploring a particular week!
